

Substance Use Disorders 2021:

A Primary Care Approach to Managing Substance Use Disorders

SESSIONS Noon-1pm

APRIL 1, 2021

Opioid Use Disorder: The Natural History of a Wicked Problem

Danial Warren, MD, University of Kansas School of Medicine-Wichita

APRIL 8, 2021

SBIRT: Starting the Conversation about Substance Use

Christina Boyd, LCSW, LCAC, KU School of Social Welfare, Hope and Wellness Resources

APRIL 15, 2021

Implementing SUD Treatment in Primary Care: A Rural Health Example

Lacey Spohn, APRN, Bacani / McKinney Clinic

APRIL 22, 2021

The Kansas Perspective on the Opioid Crisis

Jennifer Donnelly, MPH, Kansas Board of Pharmacy
Krista Machado, MS, DCCCA

APRIL 29, 2021

Strategies for Harm Reduction and Maximizing Pharmacy Partners

Andrew Roberts, PharmD, PhD, KU Medical Center, Department of Population Health

This TeleECHO is designed to improve healthcare provider capacity to implement evidence-based practices related to substance use disorder (SUD) prevention, screening, early intervention, referral to treatment, and risk reduction.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT:
Will be available. Watch for additional details!

REGISTER NOW:
<http://bit.ly/SUDECHO2021>

OPEN TO:
While helpful to everyone, this series is specifically designed for clinicians who work in the primary care setting.